

Maureen Donachie has proven to be an invaluable right arm to me during the three years I have been privileged to work with her. She is consistently reliable, hard-working, thorough, and efficient. She is also one very smart woman.

In a short time, Maureen assumed the day to day operations of Sober St. Patrick's Day, Inc. and this year was elevated to lead Producer of the NYC event, taking on my responsibility for its execution. I have great confidence in her ability to do this and am particularly grateful that through her resourcefulness and personal connections, she made the necessary, logistical arrangements to make this year's event possible. As a result, "The 5th Annual Sober St. Patrick's Day® NYC" will be her event to run. It follows her tireless efforts in making Sober St. Patrick's Day®'s 3rd and 4th Annual events in New York such terrific successes when she served as Associate Producer.

As an administrator, besides handling our day to day activities as the Sober St. Patrick's Day, Inc. Director of Operations, she also played the key role in our filing all of the necessary paperwork, permitting us to become our own 501(c)(3) organization. Her tireless efforts and great attention to detail were once again evident throughout that process.

Sober St. Patrick's Day®'s website has also benefitted from her frequent input, and most of our social media has been due to her creativity and resourcefulness.

Maureen is a very organized and dedicated individual who cares deeply about providing special service to others. She is the kind of individual any CEO or senior manager can expect great results from, particularly under circumstances that require a great deal of trust.

I'm honored and grateful to know her.

Sincerely,

William Spencer Reilly
